

Campus Ecosystem Assessment – Georgia State University

Location: Clarkston, GA

Status of County: Distressed

Project Timeframe: April 2018 – September 2018

Type of Assistance: Applied Research

The GT EDAUC has been in discussions with Dr. Robin Morris of Georgia State University (GSU) to collaborate in an assessment of needs of the GSU campus in Clarkston, Georgia. Our first series of events will be free consulting sessions (also known as office hours) for students interested in entrepreneurship. Also under consideration are a series of free workshops on innovation on entrepreneurship, starting in January 2019. The City of Clarkston, Georgia, is located in DeKalb County and it meets EDA's distress criteria with an income threshold of 51.4 percent of the U.S.'s 2016 Per Capita Money Income (5-year ACS). The City of Clarkston has a high percentage of refugee population.
